

Drawing and Mixed Media with Traci Donahue

Through drawing, students learn the form and function of their subjects. This not only builds confidence in drawing skills, but it also assists in successful exploration of those subjects in other media as well. Students will study subjects through drawing, then explore various painting and sculptural techniques. New subjects and media will be explored each month. Students will need to bring a sketchbook, of any kind, to class.

Youth options:

Thursday, 4-5 pm, ages 6 and up

Dates: Mar. 4-25

Fees: $47/session

Teen and Adult options:

Friday, 10-11:30am

Parent signature for students under 18:

Classes are taught by local, professional artists. Most classes are non-age specific; allowing students of all ages to interact in the same class. Supplies are provided unless noted. Cash or check payments are preferred for registration. Students will be notified as soon as possible if classes or workshops are cancelled due to low enrollment (we must have at least 2 students registered for classes to run) or instructor emergency. Refunds will be made to those students.

This flier is for adult and youth weekly classes and workshops. Private lessons and birthday parties are available as well. Check our website for more information.

All classes are taught by professional artists. Our goal is to introduce students to new media and techniques, then allow them to really explore their creativity.

Possibilities are endless with art once you allow yourself to explore, play, and relax.

Classes are open to students of all ages and skill levels.
